

House Resolution No. 3379

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, Caleb Raines Remboldt, the son of Jack and Jackie Remboldt, will receive the prestigious rank of Eagle Scout during a Court of Honor ceremony to be held on May 13, 2007, at Gashland Presbyterian Church; and

Whereas, Caleb Remboldt, a member of Boy Scout Troop 247, successfully met the requirements to attain Eagle status by completing his Eagle project and meeting all other criteria; and

Whereas, Caleb Remboldt's Eagle project consisted of building a ten-foot coat rack, a bike rack, and a clothing drive for the Kansas City Rescue Mission located in downtown Kansas City; and

Whereas, while in the Cub Scouts, Caleb Remboldt attained the ranks of Tenderfoot First Class, Star, and Life Scout, and Cub Scouting's highest award, the Arrow of Life, and earning a total of thirty-three merit badges; and

Whereas, since becoming a Boy Scout, Caleb Remboldt has attended summer camp at H. Roe Bartle Scout Reservation five summers and is currently Warrior "Silhouette of Running Bison" in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say and Brotherhood member in the Order of the Arrow; and

Whereas, Caleb Remboldt has received several special Cub Scouting awards including the 20'er patch by earning all twenty of the Webelo pins, the Bear Claw, and recruited six new cub scouts, and he followed suit in the Boy Scouts and received the special scouting awards of First Class in First Year, World Conservation Award, and the God and Me Award; and

Whereas, Caleb Remboldt has served his troop in many capacities including Librarian, Historian, Scribe, Patrol Leader, Assistant Senior Patrol Leader and is Den Chief Trained; and

Whereas, being an Eagle Scout has always carried with it a special significance, not only in Scouting but also as he enters higher education, business or industry, and community service, and the award is a performance-based achievement whose standards have been well-maintained over the years; and

Whereas, Caleb Remboldt realizes that the Eagle rank will be recognized at all levels of our society as being a great achievement that requires considerable dedication and effort:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, extend our congratulations to Caleb Remboldt and wish him every success in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Eagle Scout Caleb Raines Remboldt.
